BREAK GROUND FOR PARSONAGE AT GR. GARDEN

Earlier this month the Frankfort and Green Garden Methodist churches dissolved a partnership that began in 1927 when the two congregations agreed to have one pastor to serve both churches.

On July 1 this year it was agreed that each of the two churches would have its own program, carried out by a full time pastor.

Now each of the churches has its own pastor, the Rev. John Vautrin, 33, a native of Massachusetts, in the pulpit at Green Garden while the Rev. Benjamin F. Day is in charge at the Frankfort church.

The Rev. Benjamin F. Day

And last Sunday the Green Garden church celebrated its independence by breaking ground for a parsonage. The ceremony, which began at 7 p.m., was attended by Methodists and friends from Frankfort, Manhattan, New Lenox, Peotone and Mokena, in addition to the turnout from Green Garden. Charles Krapf, lay leader, had charge of arrangements.

Superintendent Speaks

The speaker was the Rev. Merrill Powers, superintendent of the Joliet-Dixon district.

The parsonage is to be located on a 3-acre tract recently purchased from Dennis Brtva, and is across the street from the church. It will have three bedrooms, a study, living room and kitchen, bath and utility room and garage.

The Rev. Mr. Vautrin attended Alderidge university at Sanford, Fla., 1949-50; Joliet junior college, 1950-52; North Central college at Naperville, 1952-54 and the Evangelical seminary also at Naperville, 1954-55, and is presently at Garret Biblical Institute at Evanston.

For the past two years he has been pastor of the Methodist church at Wedron. At the Rock River conference held at Elgin last month he was elected a deacon.

The new pastor is married and he and Mrs. Vautrin are now residing at 1112 Sterling ave., Joliet. They will live there until the parsonage is completed.

The Frankfort Methodist church is being served by a new pastor too. The Rev. Benjamin F. Day, Rev. and Mrs. Day expect to move into the Frankfort parsonage Monday. The congregation is planning to hold a reception for them in the church church parlors Monday evening July 18 at 7:45 to which they invite everyone in the community.

Expect New Interest

Spokesmen say that as a result of the separation of the Green Garden and Frankfort churches, residents of both communities can look for an accelerated program for youth, young married people, Methodist men and the Sunday school. As a part of the world-wide Methodist movement, church spokesmen said, all Protestants not affiliated with another church or who are not attending another church, are invited to Methodist services.

CHURCH FESTIVAL

The annual festival of Grace Episcopal church is to be held Saturday, July 16. Food will be served, beginning at 5 o'clock. There will be various booths and games for the entire family. The public is invited.

Green Garden Girl Severely Burned By Boiling Cooking Oil

Thirteen year old Shirley Smith, of Green Garden, who was severely burned recently, is home again after having been a patient for six days at St. James hospital, Chicago Heights.

Shirley was burned in the course of preparing supper. She had planned to french fry some potatoes and had a kettle of cooking oil on the stove. Some of the oil boiled over on the stove and caught on fire.

Shirley called for help and her twin brother Scherrill hearing her cries ran in and seized the kettle. In removing it from the stove some of the boiling oil spilled out—some of it on Shirley's side, burning her from the hip down. She suffered second and third degree burns. Some of the liquid also spilled on the floor. Scherrill slipped in this and fell, burning his arms.

The mother, Mrs. Henry Smith, hearing the cries, hurried in from the garden and then called to her husband, who was milking, to take the children to a doctor. The youngsters were treated and returned home. They went to the doctor's office every day to have the burns looked after, and when after several days Shirley's burns did not appear to respond to treatment she was taken to St. James hospital. Shirley returned home Saturday and her condition is now reported to be much improved.

Orland Child Suffers Burns From Hot Iron

A 3-year-old Orland Park youngster was severely burned last week in an unusual accident in her home.

The child, Patricia Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gray, had been lying on the floor watching TV. Rolling over to change her position she struck the legs of an ironing board. The iron was sufficient to cause a hot iron to fall off the board.

The iron landed on Patricia Ann's stomach, inflicting a severe burn before Patricia Ann was rescued. A leg, elbow and her chin also were burned.

Col. George Bills Of Mokena, Directs Exercise At Camp

Chicago's 322nd Logistical Command, organized to furnish service, supply and administrative support to an army of 400,000 in the field, is at Camp McCoy, Wis., bearing down hard in an effort to get everything they can out of the U. S. Army Reserve summer camp training program.

Col. George H. Bills, of Mokena, is director of a 7-day command post exercise, which is the highlight of the training program.

Supply and supervision of training of some 54 attached U. S. Army reserve organizations in the Fifth Army area from 10 states rests on the 322nd. This headquarters outfit is one of three such organizations in the country.

All of the officers have had World War II or Korean war experience in the jobs they perform.

LIONS, KINDRED CLUBS CAN BE FORCE IN CURBING DELINQUENCY

As long as the Lions club and kindred organizations take an active interest in young people the juvenile delinquency rate will be low, according to Paul Ohman.

Mr. Ohman, Will County probation officer who is in charge of all the juvenile cases that pass thru the hands of County Judge John C. Cowing, was the speaker at the regular July meeting of the Mokena Lions club which was held last Thursday night in the form of a dinner at the Lindwood Drive-In. Raymond Westlund, club president, presided.

Mr. Ohman was introduced by Norval Robinson, program chairman. The Lions are vitally interested in activities for youngsters. The Mokena Lions club has a boys night program several weeks ago that drew a large turnout.

BLAME HEAT FOR DEATH OF TINLEY MAN

A heart attack, believed to have been brought on by the intense heat that has gripped this area for the past week, was fatal to Stefanos Chiganes at Tinley Park last Thursday, July 7.

Mr. Chiganes, who was 65 years old, was cutting grass at his home, 17059 Forest View Drive Thursday afternoon when he was stricken. He died about 4:30.

A native of Greece, Mr. Chiganes had been a resident of the United States for many years. He served in the army in World War I and until he retired in 1951 had been employed as a chef at Hines veterans' hospital.

Besides his wife, Florence, Mr. Chiganes is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Myrtle LaPalma of ElMonte, Calif., and Mrs. Theodora Bellante of Tinley Park; one son, Otto Smith of Chicago, seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Removal was to the Hirsch chapel in Tinley Park where services were held Monday afternoon. Interment was in Elmwood cemetery, River Grove.

Zoning Board To Pass On Big Ford Stamping Plant

If the Ford Motor company builds a stamping plant at Chicago Heights as it stands ready to do, it is expected to benefit the entire surrounding area.

This plant, a million and a half square feet in area, would be built on a 140-acre site at the southwest corner of Route 30 and Cottage Grove ave., just outside the corporate limits of the Heights.

According to a spokesman for the company the new plant would employ approximately 2,500 persons. This would mean that more persons will move into the area, thus bringing in new business. The plant also would give more job opportunities to persons already living in the area.

Officials of the company are quoted as saying that they were motivated in selecting the site they did because of its nearness to steel manufacturing plants, transportation facilities and a good labor market.

There is this to be considered however. The site chosen by the Ford company is now farmland. Before it can be used for industrial purposes it must be zoned as such by the Cook county zoning board. The petition asking that the land be rezoned is scheduled for hearing July 29.

If Ford builds the plant it will be the third automobile stamping plant of size to be attracted to the area. Fisher Body division of General Motors has a plant at Willow Springs and Budd company has a plant at Gary which supplies Nash and Studebaker.

Nab 3 Men For Will And Cook County Tavern Hold-ups

The dime-novel technique with a faint wild-west flavor that marked the hold-ups at Jaridine's bar and restaurant on the outskirts of Tinley Park in the early hours of July 3 led to identification of a trio held by Will county authorities as the bandits.

Similarity in tactics used in two Will county hold-ups with those employed in two Cook county jobs caused the Cook county victims to view the suspects at a show-up conducted by Will County Sheriff Roy Doerflinger at the county jail in Joliet. Identification followed.

A bartender at Jaridine's cafe identified three suspects as the men who robbed that place. The men have been identified as Raymond Smith, 22, Leroy Bardell, 34, and John Edward McLennan, 24, all of Joliet. They are alleged to have entered Jaridine's shortly before 2 o'clock the morning of July 3 and ordered food. After they had eaten and paid their bill they were notified that a hold-up was in progress.

Two Shots Fired

One of the men fired two shots into the floor to command attention. There were 17 victims, customers and employees. Later they were all locked in a small restroom when the gunmen left. While one of the bandits kept the people covered the other two searched and robbed the victims. This personal robbery, reminiscent of tales of the wild west, is rarely followed by bandits today - the risk outweighing the probable profit. After a patron has remained at a bar until closing time most of the money he came in with will be in the cash register anyway, it was pointed out.

State police were called to the Jaridine cafe after the robbery there and according to the first information given them the amount taken there was approximately $245. At the show up in Joliet last week the amount taken by the bandits was reported to have been around $400.

Cook county warrants were issued for all three of the suspects in the Jaridine robbery. Smith and Bardwell were also identified as participants in the stick-up at Olympia Gardens, on Rt. 30, a mile west of Western ave., in Cook county. Identification was made by the operator. The stick-up at Olympia Gardens took place about 11:30 p.m. July 2 and $510 was taken, it was reported. Warrants were issued for Smith and Bardwell only for that Cook county job.

Sign Confessions

Smith and Bardwell also were identified as the men who robbed the Marathon restaurant and tavern on Rt. 54 between Peotone and Monee, and staged a hold-up at a Custer Park tavern. The men are alleged to have signed confessions admitting these jobs and also a hold-up in LaSalle county and an attempted stick-up at the Trophy Inn in Grundy county.

Will county of course has first call on the prisoners. They have been arraigned before Justice of the Peace George Williams in Joliet on charges of armed robbery and their bonds have been set at $10,000 each. The three men are being held in the Will county jail to await grand jury action in September. They are alleged to have obtained about $1,500 in all; $228 was found on them when arrested.

Three other bandits, caught in the midst of a robbery at a Joliet food store about two weeks ago, also await action by the grand jury. There were four bandits in the store robbery but one died of police bullets.

Entries have increased in practically all departments, except in the beef division which has a few less, according to Robert Van Rheeden, vocational ag. instructor at Lincoln-Way, who is publicity chairman for the FFA fair.

Many Entries

The show is divided into these departments with the following number of entries in each:

Swine, 341; beef, 109; dairy 96; sheep, 167; vegetable, 25.

The greatest gain was made in the sheep department, it was said.

Beecher and Peotone are the other Will county schools that will have entries at the show. Joliet goes to another fair, Bremen and Carl Sandberg do not have Vocational ag. courses.

Mokenan Escapes Injury in Crash Fatal to Woman

Robert DeForest, of Mokena, escaped injury in a 5-vehicle crash on Route 66, five miles south of Pontiac Tuesday in which a woman was killed, but his car was damaged and was brought to the Cooper and Hostert garage for repairs.

Justus, 23, of Petersburg, Ill., plowed into the last car in line, driven by Hugo Hawser, of St. Louis. The Hawser car was thrown into the ditch and Mr. Hawser injured.

The semi-trailer went on, over riding a convertible that had been standing just ahead of the Hawser car. The owner of the convertible, Mrs. Elizabeth Gordon Mazzotti, 45, of Taylorville, was killed and her son Richard, 17, and a 16 year old girl, Barbara Tarrant, also of Taylorville were injured.

The two cars in front of the convertible, one of which was driven by Mr. DeForest, were both damaged.

Delores Cleveland And Matthew Fisch Speak Nuptial Vows

Wedding vows were exchanged by two popular north Homer young people Saturday, June 25, when Delores Cleveland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland of 143rd and Cream road, and Matthew E. Fisch, Jr., son of Matthew Fisch, 143rd st. and the late Mrs. Fisch, were married at an 11 o'clock nuptial mass at St. Dennis church, Lockport, with Rev. Michael J. Mugan officiating at a double ring ceremony.

Anna Mae Longhini, church organist and vocalist, furnished the wedding music. The altar was decorated with bouquets of white Glads and Daisies, and Palms. The bride placed a bouquet of white flowers at the altar of the Blessed Virgin.

Given in marriage by her father, Delores wore a gown of white nylon lace over taffeta with an illusion neckline and peter-pan collar, three quarter length sleeves and a bouffant lace skirt ending in a cathedral length train. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book adorned with a baby orchid.

Mrs. James Fogarty, matron of honor, wore a green and white checked gingham, ballerina length dress with scoop neckline and empire waist, full skirt over hoop and matching picture hat. She carried a cascade bouquet of Shasta daisies. Miss Edith Fox, the bride's maid, was dressed similarly to the matron of honor.

Jack Cleveland, the bride's brother, served as best man, and the usher was Gordon Mather, a cousin of the groom.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the Cozy Cottage for the bridal party in the evening, a reception for 300 guests was held at Lockport Moose hall. The bride's table was centered by a four tier wedding cake and flanked by ferns, daisies and candles.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cleveland wore a blue sheer print with white accessories and a white baby orchid corsage. Miss Agnes Fisch, the groom's aunt, wore navy blue crepe and navy accessories. Her corsage was pink roses.

When the new Mrs. Fisch left for a honeymoon at Daytona Beach, Fla., she was wearing a two piece suit of aqua cotton with white accessories and white carnation corsage.

Upon their return the couple will live at 314½ Ninth St., Lockport.

DAYS, DOLLARS BIG FACTORS IN VACATIONS
If you're planning a vacation trip by auto, it's best to figure out the number of days and the dollars you can afford before deciding how far to travel, the Chicago Motor club advises.

For two persons you should allow an over-all daily total of $30.00 a day, provided you don't cover more than 300 miles of driving in a day, the club suggests.

Here is a breakdown of this daily budget for two:

Car operating costs, $9.00. This amount is computed at the rate of 2 1/2 cents per mile for gasoline and oil. The remaining $1.50 per day covers miscellaneous maintenance expenses such as car washes, lubrication and tire repairs that may be necessary during the trip.

It All Counts Up
Meals, $8.00. The cost of meals is arrived at on a per-person basis of 75 cents for breakfast, $1.25 for lunch and at least $2.00 for dinner.

Lodging, $8.00. Rates at hotels and motor courts appear to be about the same with the exception that a traveling family will save on garage charges and tips at a motel. Actually, overnight accommodations for two persons range from $4.00 to $10.00 depending on the type and locality. If you're traveling with children, you may find some hotels and motor courts which will set a cot or two in your room for a slight extra charge.

Admissions, amusements and tolls, $2.00. This sum covers admission prices for such places as caverns, historic shrines and other scenic attractions. It is computed at $1.00 per person making the trip.

Distance Adds To Cost
Incidentals, souvenirs and emergencies, $3.00. This amount includes roadside refreshments, postcards, films, combs, toothpaste and other items which don't fall into one of the above categories.

If you take, along two children, say teen-agers, the food bill will be doubled. Your lodging cost will jump about one-half to cover the extra cot or two that some motels will set in your room. The children also mean an extra $2.00 for admissions, etc. The total daily bill for the four of you will come to about $46.

The club reminds motorists that to cover too much distance with too little time and money can take the pleasure out of a vacation trip. If you're short on either days or money, shorten your trip objectives in order to get the most out of the jaunt.

How To Stretch Dollar
To stretch your travel dollar, the Motor club suggests:

1. Drive during the early part of the day so you can stop in the late afternoon in plenty of time to find the type of accommodation you want at the price you can afford.
2. Visit travel attractions that offer you something worthwhile for your money. Avoid "tourist traps."
3. If possible, plan your vacation for the spring or autumn, avoiding peak travel seasons when roads and overnight accommodations are crowded and prices are at their highest.
4. Safety is another factor to keep in mind, for it is all important in making your trip an enjoyable one. Remember, most traffic accidents are man-made, through carelessness or inexperience. To avoid mishaps on the road:
1. Limit your driving distances to about 300 miles a day.
2. Drive at moderate speeds.
3. Always leave extra margins of safety when following or passing.
4. Avoid night driving if possible.
5. Take it easy, relax, and don't attempt to rush.

You can take small warts off your dairy heifers before show time by treating them with tincture of iodine.

Lambs not finished for market by July 1 run the risk of stomach worms during the hot weather as pastures get shorter and worm eggs increase.

Here's Chance To Make Money On Water Question
Here is a chance for someone familiar with the beverage that could have made Mokena famous had early publicists used high pressure methods of their present day brethren, to earn a buck for himself - or herself, as the case may be.

Each week, as a filip to add interest in the Mokena homecoming that is to be staged Aug. 19-21, the publicity committee, headed by Marcella Lehmann, poses a question dealing with earlier days in Mokena.

The question is carried in this paper each week and the first person who phones Mrs. Lehmann with the correct answer gets a dollar. Mrs. Lehmann's telephone number is Mokena 4561.

What, Where, When?
The question this week deals with the mineral springs of Mokena. What was it, where was it and when did it play an active part in the life of the community?

Last week's question which dealt with the going price of land when Mokena was organized, was answered by Johnny Marcoux, who lives on a farm south of Mokena. John's answer of $1.25 an acre was the correct one.

Mokena's homecoming this year is planning a big parade. Parade Chairman Thomas Everhart says he hopes it will be the "biggest and best parade ever held in Mokena."

Two Parades
Everhart is urging business firms and civic groups to get started with plans for the floats they expect to enter. And persons who plan to enter floats are asked by Mr. Everhart to telephone him at Mokena 2791.

The parade is scheduled to begin at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 21.

The regular parade will be preceded by a youngster and pet parade. This affair is scheduled to move off at 1 o'clock and is expected to draw a large field of entries.

Turn off the hot-water faucet when shaving and save up to 25 gallons of water.

Obey God's Laws

Lesson for July 17, 1955

LAWs are of various kinds. Some laws are arbitrary, some are made by the nature of things, or rather express the nature of things. To take an example of an arbitrary law: What is the fine, where you live, for exceeding the speed limit or for parking in the wrong place? Let's say it is ten dollars for going too fast, and three for illegal parking. If the alderman, or whoever it was that made the law, should decide next Tuesday to change those fines to fifteen and four dollars, respectively, they would have a right to do it. There is nothing in the nature of things that makes parking on the north side of Main Street wrong, and nothing that makes three dollars the exact amount to charge the offender, practical though it may be.

Some Laws Cannot Be Broken

There are other laws which are not on the statute books but are much more rigid, and rigidly enforced, than regulations about parking or school attendance. We sometimes call these laws of nature; but they are really laws of God. There is no law printed in a book anywhere that says that if a person neglects the care of his teeth he will get a toothache; but that is a law nevertheless. It is, so to speak, written into the physical constitution of every man. There is a higher sort of law still, called Moral Law, which is likewise rooted in the nature of things. Examples of moral laws: To every man belongs his due; whatever a man sows, that shall he also reap; hate and you will be hated, love and you will be loved. Such laws can be disregarded; they are disregarded every day; but they cannot be broken. They are not at all like arbitrary laws. There is a ghost town where parking spaces can still be seen marked on the pavement. But you can leave your car there now for a month and never get a ticket. The town government has just folded up and gone away. But God never folds up nor goes away. There is a corner in a city where once a left turn was permitted; now it is against the law. The traffic department changed its mind. But God does not change his mind.

How Nations Break Laws

Now, every nation, every community, every club or organization of people, has the right to make up its own constitution and by-laws, its rules, ordinances, regulations, laws and statutes. And it has the right to change these. Most nations, however, do not like to admit that there are laws which bind them. They do not like to feel that there are unchanging and unchangeable laws which govern them and all nations. Nevertheless there are such laws, laws of God; and nations have been broken for trying to break them. Consider the case of the country of Judah. Prophets had been warning that country, its leaders and its people, for years, that disobedience would bring disaster. Ezekiel, whose book makes fascinating though often puzzling reading, did make one thing quite plain: that Judah's sins had reached the breaking-point, that God's axe would fall, that Jerusalem would be destroyed. Scarcely any one believed him. But when Jerusalem actually and finally fell, then "they knew that a prophet had been among them."

Crime and Punishment

What were some of the divine laws, rooted in the nature of things, which Judah as a nation had been breaking? We can name the two most important: Love and Justice. The nation lived by hate, fear, distrust and selfishness. As a nation, they hated other nations. They tried to build a little iron curtain around themselves. They would not trust other nations and they would not keep treaties they had made themselves. They let down their moral standards to the point where the typical Judahite (to judge from the pictures the prophets paint) was loose in his relations with women, undependable and dishonest in his business dealings, irreligious even in his "religious" acts, irresponsible in his civic duties. . . you can fill out the discouraging list from the pages of Ezekiel, or other prophets. You cannot build a good country with bad citizens; that is another law that cannot be broken, though Judah tried hard enough to break it. When disaster finally struck, the citizens were astonished; but God's prophets were not. SEE BOOST IN MILK PRICES FOR FARMERS

Milk prices to dairy farmers who supply Chicago will probably be boosted by around six cents a hundred pounds as the result of a federal hearing, A. L. McWilliams, general manager of the Pure Milk Association, said today.

The changes in price will be made thru an adjustment in the Federal Milk Market Order 41, which regulates the handling of milk in the Chicago market. The order is administered by the US Department of Agriculture thru a Chicago office.

The specific change which will raise the prices is a modification of the supply-demand factor. This factor raises or lowers the premium which is paid for milk sold in the fluid form in bottles and cartons.

6 Cents At The Farm

The change in the federal order is not expected to be final until at least Aug. 1. It would raise the price paid for fluid milk by around eight cents a hundred pounds. Since around three-fourths of the dairy farmers' production is sold as fluid milk, it will raise the price at the farm around six cents.

The modification of the supply-demand factor was requested by Pure Milk association at a public hearing on May 9 and 10. The US department of agriculture studied the testimony which was presented at the hearing and announced a recommended decision Wednesday. This recommendation altered the original PMA proposal.

The Chicago milk industry will study the recommendations during the next week and file any exceptions with the federal department. The USDA will consider the exceptions and issue a final order for approval by the Chicago market cooperatives.

EDDIE the EDUCATOR

The Library of Congress subscribes to about 850 American newspapers.

"When all is said and done, too many people keep on saying and not doing!"

Some people are so busy hunting for righteousness that they can't seem to find time to practice it.

The making of friends is the best token we have of man's success.

Farmers and landowners will feel increasing pressure for greater efficiency of operation during the next 10 years, says a University of Illinois farm economist.

FIRST... LAST
...and FOREVER

A boy's first love for a girl... painstakingly cut into a tree for all to see. A man's enduring love for a woman, and hers for him, beautifully carved years later on a monument of marble or granite.
These are the traditional and timeless expressions of sentiment that are part of American life. Make sure your love is as equally and eloquently expressed.
Arrange now for a family plot in a cemetery that allows you the privilege of erecting a beautiful monument. Then select that monument, too, while all are here to participate in the choice.

SPORTSMAN'S CLUB VICTOR IN TWIN BILL

The Tinley Park Sportsman's club baseball team is now one game over the .500 mark as the result of beating Homewood twice in a double-header last Sunday. They came from behind to beat Homewood 9-6 in the first game and then soundly trounced them 12-1 in the nightcap behind the brilliant pitching of Ron Shaper. This double win now gives Tinley a 4-3 record in the South Suburban conference.

Homewood jumped off to a quick 3-0 lead in the bottom of the 1st inning on a walk and three hits. Tinley scored one run in the second and put three runs across in the third to take the lead. In this inning, Les Becue reached base on the first baseman's error. He stole second and third and scored on a single by Wes Landau. Don Kuech's single sent Landau to third where he scored on a sacrifice fly by Moose Nasebandt. Slick Sedlacek came thru with a single to center to score Kuech. Joe Kwasek slammed a ground rule double to left. Dan Anfield hit a sharp grounder to the third baseman who bobbed the ball and threw to the plate barely ahead of Sedlacek who had tried to score. Tinley added two more runs in the fourth. Les Becue again reached base on an error. Wes Landau reached first on a fielder's choice. Both men scored on Nasebandt's long double to left. In the sixth, singles by Anfield and Becue scored Kwasek. In the eighth, Ron Harnack drove in Anfield with a single and in the ninth, a single by Landau and a double by Don Kuech accounted for the final run.

Dan Anfield pitched good ball for the Tinley Tigers. After a rather shaky first inning, he was never in trouble the rest of the game.

He struck out nine men while walking only four to record his first win in the S. S. C. Landau and Nasebandt were top men with the sticks, Landau scoring 4 runs on 3 hits, and Moose Nasebandt driving in 4 big R. B. I.'s.

Second Game
The second game, was a near rout in which Tinley bashed out 16 hits to five for the Homewood club. Tinley started connecting early in the second inning. Don Kuech, Moose Nasebandt, and Slick Sedlacek walked to load the bases. After Joe Kwasek struck out, Ron Shaper lifted a fly ball to right which the fielder dropped, Kuech scoring. Ron Harnack singled home Nasebandt, and Dan Anfield doubled in Sedlacek and Shaper. Les Becue dumped a bunt single down the first base line scoring Harnack and sending Anfield to third where he scored on Wes Landau's sacrifice fly.

Tinley got two more runs in the sixth. Ron Shaper singled, Ron Harnack doubled, and Dan Anfield walked. Les Becue then slapped a single to center, scoring Shaper and Harnack. The eighth inning saw Ron Harnack hit his first homer of the season and the second one hit by the Sportsman's club this year. A triple by Kwasek in the ninth with Landau and Nasebandt on base who had singled accounted for two more runs. Ron Shaper then knocked in Kwasek with a single. Ron Shaper pitched a tremendous game for the Sportsman's club, striking out 18 batters and walking only two. He struck out two batters in the first and second innings and he struck out the side in the third, fourth and fifth. His slugging teammates were Harnack and Becue. Each got three hits, Harnack's including a home run and 2 R. B. I.'s, while Becue used his three singles to drive in 3 runs.

CARDS TO OPEN ANNUAL TRYOUT CAMP MONDAY

Veteran Cardinal Scout Tony Kaufmann has been assigned to handle the workouts for the Red Bird tryout camp scheduled at Wing Park in Elgin, on Monday and Tuesday, July 18 and 19.

Kaufmann, former Cardinal pitcher and coach, hoped that a large group of young players would be on hand, he said. "This is a real opportunity for any boy who really likes to play baseball," he added.

"All we ask a player to do is bring his own glove, a pair of shoes, and, if he has one, a uniform. We'll have bats and balls and catching equipment.

No Fees
"Besides that," he continued, "any boy reporting can be assured that he will get a one hundred per cent fair and impartial evaluation of his talents. Any player we see who has the potential to become, some day, thru development, a major league player will be offered a contract to play and develop his talents in the Cardinals' minor league organization, the biggest and best in the major league.

"Everyone in the Cardinal organization works with and for a young player, helping him to make good. The Cardinal formula of plenty of personal attention, plus a generous amount of individual instruction and a chance to play regularly is an unbeatable combination to help a player climb the ladder of baseball success."

No charge or fee is required to attend the tryout camp. In addition, players who are signed will be refunded any expense incurred as a result of participating in the tryout camp.

PUSH PLANS FOR 4-H FAIR

Plans are being developed to make the ninth annual South Cook 4-H fair the most successful to date, according to Floyd W. Adaire, president of the fair association.

Considerable liaison work between the board and other community and service organizations is required, Adair said, and the cooperation is most gratifying.

The fair will be held Aug. 19-20-21 near the Woodrow Wilson woods just south of Bloom township high school.

One of the outstanding features of the fair will be the 4-H exhibits. Here, polished and sparkling, the public will see the results of enacting methods of husbandry on the part of the individual boy or girl. Over 600 4-H'ers on the farm or in the home. Included in these exhibits will be carefully groomed livestock, expertly tailored and dressed, garden and canning displays, craft exhibits, flowers, poultry and rabbits.

The competition is keen and everyone works hard, but when the placings are made, a good loser congratulates a gracious winner.

The 4-H exhibits are just a part of the many interesting activities to be seen at the South Cook 4-H Fair.

Northern Section Girls Win 27-11 In Softball Tilt

The Northern section of the South Cook County Girls Softball league triumphed over the Southern division Sunday in an inter-sectional tilt played at Beecher under lights last Sunday night.

The Northerners won 27 to 11 in a free hitting, free running game that gave the 450 spectators many thrills.

Each section squad was made up of 25 players, five from each of the five teams. Tinley Park, Oak Forest, North Harvey, Lansing and Matteson make up the northern division while the southern section is made up of Crete, Beecher, Kankakee, Steger and Rich.

Tinley players on the northern section squad were Mickey Yunker, Diane Albright, Sue Balzhiser, Judy Gray and Carol Meyer.

TATTERSALL AFTER RECORD

Veteran Bob Tattersall will attempt something which has never been done when he goes for his fourth consecutive mid-gate auto feature race victory Saturday night in Joliet Memorial Stadium.

Nobody has ever won four main events in a row, but the Streator driver doesn't see why it can't be done. He won his third straight last Saturday.

One of Tattersall's most dangerous foes will be Hank Nykaza of Chicago Heights, who hasn't won a feature all season but has been close behind in practically every race thus far. Nykaza won his heat race last Saturday and placed fourth in the feature.

Among the others out to stop Tattersall will be former feature winners Sam Robinson of Rockdale and Jim Bender of Des Plaines.

If they can't do it, there may be others who can. Among them are former track champions Tony Lenti of Chicago and Ken Rubright of Lyndon; Bud Abraham and Johnny Riav of Chicago; Dick Westcott, Lemont; Dan Curley, Maywood; Chuck Green, Ottawa; and Corky Singer and Tony Saylor, Joliet.

Included on Saturday's program will be four heat races, a handicap race, 15 lap semifeature and 25 lap feature. Time trials start at 7:30 p.m. and the first race at 8:30 p.m.

HOLY NAME MEN TO PLAY GOLF

Members of Holy Name society of St. Mary's church, Mokena, are to have their third annual golf outing Sunday, July 17, at Woodruff course on Gougar road near Joliet.

To date a dozen or more have registered for the golf, according to Larry Weathers, chairman of the committee in charge, but he expects several times that number will sign in before the last foursome is off No. 1 tee. He prefers advance registrations, however, and may be reached by calling Mokena 5106.

The golfing is to begin at 12 noon but those late in registering can sign up at the tee beginning at 11:30. No contestants will be sent away after 2 p.m. Play will be under the Peoria handicap system and there will be prizes. Persons who do not golf are

Mosquito District Question Box

(Editor's note: The South Cook county mosquito abatement district has been invited to use this space to answer the most commonly asked questions about its operation. The reader may direct any unanswered question to this newspaper and it will be forwarded to the district's offices for reply in this column.)

Question: We voted for mosquito abatement three years ago, why hasn't anything been done before this?

Answer: The referendum establishing the South Cook county mosquito abatement district was passed in November, 1952. The trustees of the district were appointed in March, 1953. Legal challenges against the district were filed almost immediately. It was not until November of 1954 that the final court case was disposed of, leaving the trustees free to hire a manager and get the technical operation of the district underway. For all practical purposes, then, the first steps toward mosquito abatement began six months ago.

The knotty problem of establishing the policy under which this district would proceed occupied much of the time and thought of the board of trustees from the time they were appointed until they were actually free to act. This is a lay board of taxpayers residents of the district. They serve without compensation.

In order to establish what in their judgement would be a wise policy on which the future of the district would depend, they devoted many hours to discussion invited to come along for the fun and a day in the open. Supper is to be served between 6 and 6:30 o'clock at the Belmont A.C. club rooms, alongside Highland park.

Farm Homes More Dangerous Than Machinery

Corn pickers and tractors are dangerous farm machines, but more than twice as many fatal accidents in 1953 occurred in farm homes as outside the home.

An article in the July IAA Record, monthly publication of the Illinois Agricultural association, points out that homemakers are in the best position to concentrate on a farm safety program.

"Seemingly harmless things such as slick floors, loose scatter rugs, and toy-littered floors appear to offer as much danger to human life as corn pickers and tractors," according to the article. The IAA is the statewide Farm Bureau organization.

"There are about 16,000 fatal accidents to rural people every year, the largest percentage re-not only among themselves but with recognized authorities in mosquito abatement elsewhere. Based on the experience of others and the most competent advice available, they determined upon the course that the district is now following as being the most sensible and therefore most defensible - that of carefully accumulating the kinds of information that make it possible to abate mosquitoes through reduction or control of their breeding sources. The program they adopted calls for a systematic survey of the 360 square miles of the district with major breeding sources being placed under control as rapidly as they are located and identified as trouble spots.

In this decision they were aware that they might receive criticism from residents of the district who understandably would be impatient for immediate results. But after thorough consideration they decided that any program that was not established on sound basic information could not conscientiously be adopted in behalf of all of the people of the district. A long range program that would yield progressively better results each year with a gradual reduction of costs in the future, was therefore determined upon, as opposed to a more spectacular program which might conceivably yield better results in the first year or so but would not be as effective in the long run, nor could it ever be expected to lead to a reduction in cost.

Falls Take Heavy Toll
"These dangerous falls can happen anywhere - they are not restricted to shaky stepladders or steep stairways. Actually, about 80 per cent of falls occur when the victim falls on the same level, and only 20 per cent down stairs or off ladders," the magazine reports.

Thus the most innocent-appearing places cause the most accidents.

"Safety must be a continuing project, with attention to details, if it is to pay off. Putting shields around power take-off shafts while overlooking loose scatter rugs is not an adequate safety program," the Record states.

"The best way to make your home and farm safe is to begin a systematic check of hazards and unsafe practices. The farm division of the National Safety council has safety check lists available.

"Remember that safety starts in your own home, and to prevent accidents you must recognize hazards and eliminate them as quickly as possible," the magazine article concludes

FIRST LEGISLATIVE REMAP IN 54 YEARS
... Governor William G. Stratton this week signed H.B. 1123, which sets up 59 Representative Districts and 58 Senate Districts in Illinois. This legislation, originally suggested by Gov. Stratton in his Inaugural Message in 1953, achieves the first remapping of state legislative districts in more than half a century.

The above map was prepared by the Illinois Legislative Council. A similar presentation of legislative districts in Cook County is now being prepared, State of Illinois DDR

The American taxpayer today is being taxed untold millions to build irrigation projects to bring into food production millions of arid western acres. At the same time government warehouses are bursting with $7 1/2 billion worth of surplus farm products, most of which we can neither sell nor give away. We grow more food today on our present farm acres than we can consume.
Production from present farm acreage could be doubled, if necessary, by improved methods of fertilizing the soil, proper seed development (hybrid corn), and new farm technology now available. Why spend untold millions today to create more farm acres when we do not need them?
Spending What We Don't Have
"When a man spends more than he makes, he ends up broke; when a partnership spends more than it makes, it ends up dissolved; when a corporation spends more than it makes, it ends up liquidated; but when the Federal government spends more than it takes in, the people end up prosperous." Is this statement true or false?
For 20 years our Federal government has grown bigger and bigger. It's debt - $275 billion - is now greater than the debts of all the other nations of the world combined. Like an improvident householder - the government has been living high on borrowed money, and has piled up an enormous debt for our children to pay. Our Federal government has been extravagant, wasteful and inefficient - as Senator Byrd has consistently pointed out - and yet the liberals (liberal with other people's money) want to go on borrowing, continue operating government business at a loss in competition with private taxpayer businesses, wishfully hoping that the government's credit will be inexhaustible.

The government is no stronger economically than the sum total of its taxpayers and their ability to pay taxes. When will the American public finally wake up to the fact that the credit of the Federal government is no stronger than the collective credit of its taxpayers? When will the American voter finally realize that our future taxpayers are already obligated to pay off a third-of-a-trillion dollar debt?
It is later than we think! Will the awakening come too late?
The "Economic Council Letter" of June 1, 1955, lists - in substance - the following steps down the international pike:
1. Roosevelt's recognition in 1933 of Communist Russia by an Executive Agreement.
2. Our involvement in World War II, largely through false propaganda and the secret scheming of F. D. R.

3. Our rushing to Moscow in June 1941, when Germany attacked Russia, to begin handing over $11 billion of Lend-Lease materials to Communist Russia. (A large part of the present power of Communist Russia to threaten the world can be traced to this unwise pouring out of our treasure).
4. Roosevelt's insistence at Casablanca in 1943 upon the unconditional surrender of both Germany and Japan, thereby destroying the two nations that were chief obstacles to the spread of Communism.
5. Our unseemly haste in 1945 to disarm our Army and scrap or destroy $35 billion worth of war machinery and war material.
6. Our leadership in forming the United Nations and in subscribing to its Communist-inspired Charter.
7. Our betrayal of Chiang Kai-shek and our sell-out of the Chinese people to the Communists, following the advice of George C. Marshall.
8. Truman's recall of General MacArthur from Korea at the request of the British, after the lives of 30,000 American boys had been sacrificed. (Then a cease-fire agreement was arranged which released Red Chinese armies to attack in Indo-China.)

George Washington's warning against "foreign entanglements" in his farewell message in 1796 has been completely forgotten and entirely abandoned as a part of American foreign policy. With a $68 billion tax burden and American boys scattered in 49 foreign countries to police the world, isn't it about time for that "agonizing reappraisal" that we have heard about?

Recent announcement by Congressman William E. McVey of Harvey that he will be a candidate for re-election on the Republican ticket in the fourth district which includes Tinley Park is good news.

Mr. McVey, who is now serving his third term in congress had indicated several months ago that he might retire from the political field. But after a recent meeting of the Republican committeemen of the fourth district, who unanimously endorsed him, he was prevailed upon to seek re-election.
It is well for the district that Congressman McVey is willing to serve it further. An educator by training and experience, McVey is a man of intelligence and possesses the ability to think clearly. He is a man of high ideals and purpose and thoroughly honest. He has not only done a good job for the district in Washington but for the nation as well. The fourth district will be fortunate to have such a man as a candidate for congress in 1956.

COOK COUNTY HOSPITAL TO INCREASE FEES
The board of commissioners of Cook county has approved the recommendation from Welfare Director Raymond H. Hilliard that the rate charged for care in the Cook county hospital be increased from $14.21 to $17.31 per day. The basis for this recommendation was a finding by the state department of public health that the actual cost for patient care at Cook county hospital was $17.31 per day while the present charge is only $14.21.
The present rate has been known for more than a year to be below the actual cost of care, but was continued because another agency of the state felt that it was without adequate appropriations to meet the actual cost.
Commenting on this situation, Mr. Hilliard stated that Illinois law is most advanced in providing care not only for those on relief rolls, but also for those defined - by law - as "medical indigents." This group includes those who can meet all ordinary living expenses but who, when serious illness strikes and requires hospitalization, cannot pay these extra costs.
"The state's responsibility should be carried out," said Mr. Hilliard, "by adequate appropriations to meet actual needs."
The first results of fixing the new rate will be to increase the collections in accident claims or other cases, where insurance companies, the patient, or his family, can and should pay actual costs, instead of receiving a "subsidy" from the county, by reason of a below-cost rate for hospital care.

Cook County Hospital is the largest in the country. The actual cost for the year ending November 30, 1954, as certified by the State Department of Public Health, was $15,769,428.81. The number of patient-days of care provided was 910,887. It was on the basis of these official findings that the actual cost of $17.31 per day was established.

Marvin H. Coleman, executive and attorney-at-law with offices at 173 West Madison st., has been named general chairman of the suburban division of the 1956 Heart Fund drive of the Chicago Heart association.
This is the third consecutive Heart campaign in which Mr. Coleman has served. Last year he was chairman of Cook county north.
Total goal of the 1956 Heart campaign in the Chicago territory is $750,000. The suburban division expects to contribute $185,000 of this over-all amount.

Recent announcement by Congressman William E. McVey of Harvey that he will be a candidate for re-election on the Republican ticket in the fourth district which includes Tinley Park is good news.

Mr. McVey, who is now serving his third term in congress had indicated several months ago that he might retire from the political field. But after a recent meeting of the Republican committeemen of the fourth district, who unanimously endorsed him, he was prevailed upon to seek re-election.
It is well for the district that Congressman McVey is willing to serve it further. An educator by training and experience, McVey is a man of intelligence and possesses the ability to think clearly. He is a man of high ideals and purpose and thoroughly honest. He has not only done a good job for the district in Washington but for the nation as well. The fourth district will be fortunate to have such a man as a candidate for congress in 1956.

COOK COUNTY HOSPITAL TO INCREASE FEES
The board of commissioners of Cook county has approved the recommendation from Welfare Director Raymond H. Hilliard that the rate charged for care in the Cook county hospital be increased from $14.21 to $17.31 per day. The basis for this recommendation was a finding by the state department of public health that the actual cost for patient care at Cook county hospital was $17.31 per day while the present charge is only $14.21.
The present rate has been known for more than a year to be below the actual cost of care, but was continued because another agency of the state felt that it was without adequate appropriations to meet the actual cost.
Commenting on this situation, Mr. Hilliard stated that Illinois law is most advanced in providing care not only for those on relief rolls, but also for those defined - by law - as "medical indigents." This group includes those who can meet all ordinary living expenses but who, when serious illness strikes and requires hospitalization, cannot pay these extra costs.

which represents the majority of dairy farmers who sell milk to Chicago, asks that these farmers be paid a higher rate for milk which is used for bottling purposes. PMA recommends that the premium on bottled milk be increased from 70 cents a hundred pounds to 90 cents during the months of March, April, May and June.
Showers usually require 25 gallons of water - baths, 36. Reduce these figures by turning off the shower while soaping and turning it on again to rinse and save 15 gallons. Substitute a partly filled tub for a full one and save 16 gallons.

Would Include Will County
PMA recommends other changes in the federal milk order. Kankakee county, and all of Will county, are asked to be included under the Chicago milk market area.

PMA asks to extend the deadline for producers requested a new producer status until Jan. 15. The deadline is now Dec. 31.
Prices to farmers will be helped if another change in the order is granted to PMA. A premium is recommended for milk that goes into ice cream and other frozen desserts. Here PMA asks that the milk solids as well as the butterfat be considered in establishing the premium.

Previously only the butterfat part of the milk was used to establish the premium for packaged milk and cream.
With the coming of bulk tanks into the market, PMA asks that the federal milk marketing order designate the place where the milk is reloaded from the farm pick-up truck as the point where the milk plant receives the milk.

The testimony presented at the hearing will be considered by the U S Department of Agriculture. The department will issue a recommended decision later in the year on the changes that are considered advisable in the order. Dairy farmers in the Chicago marketing area will be able to vote on whether to accept this recommended decision as part of the order.

Public Service Company's "LITTLE BILL" says:

"I'll keep you cool electrically — for pennies a day"

For about 2 cents you can cool, clean and dehumidify the air in an average-size bedroom for a full hour. And if your room air conditioner has a thermostat, a cool night's sleep costs only a few cents more.

2 hours for a penny — that's all it costs to run a big night-cooling fan. Smaller fans will run 6 hours for a cent!

For pennies a day you can cook the coolest way. Electric ranges keep a kitchen up to 10 degrees cooler.

How Public Service Company keeps your electric bill down (while everything else goes up)

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

The hotter the weather, the more electricity your family uses to help beat the heat. But surprisingly enough, while almost everything costs double today, you get almost twice as much electricity for your money as you did 25 years ago.

How is Public Service Company able to keep your electric bill so low? One important reason is about a billion dollars' worth of modern plants and equipment your electric company has invested in during the last 25 years. This has helped increase the electrical production of our employees by more than double.

In fact, with this saving and others, the electricity you use today actually costs you less per kilowatt-hour than it did 25 years ago.

Develop Method For Faster Return Of Water To Ground

In an experimental project at Peoria the state water survey division of the Illinois department registration and education has developed a method to return water to the ground at a rate of 21 million gallons per acre per day. Most projects of this kind heretofore have been able to reach a flow of only half a million gallons per acre per day.

This method can be used to help relieve future water shortages expected to occur because of the ever increasing demand for water. The survey points out that such projects for artificially replaced ground water sources can be used in many parts of the state where ground water is used from drift wells and where a large stream or surface water supply exists.

List Advantages
Five advantages are found in ground water storage, according to the survey: (1) free from taste-producing growths, (2) little or no evaporation, (3) cooler temperature in summer, (4) may be tapped at any point, (5) requires no large purchase of land.

Illinois river water is used by the survey at Peoria. After being purified, the water is returned to the ground by means of a "recharge pit." In other words, the survey project speeds up a process which occurs naturally over a number of years. Well water is rain or snow which fell many years ago.

Water Need Greater

Because more people are using water faster than it can be replaced naturally, recharge projects will be needed more and more in the future.

Areas that could benefit from recharge operations are the Illinois river valley below LaSalle, the bottomlands along the Mississippi, Ohio and Wabash rivers and certain parts of the Sangamon, Kaskaskia, Embarrass, Little Wabash and Saline river valleys as well as some intersections of present streams with old buried valleys. Local studies might reveal additional possible locations.

Heavily pumped areas which probably will require such recharge operations first are the American bottoms around East St. Louis, the Peoria area, the Wabash valley near Lawrenceville and the Chicago area.

CORN GROWERS TOLD TO LOOK FOR BORERS

Corn borer development is proceeding rapidly now and moth emergence is practically complete, according to William F.
Whiteside, Cook county assistant farm adviser. Corn that is 36 - 40 inches tall with leaves extended is in a susceptible stage right now. Examine all early corn for egg masses and borer feeding. If damage is found, treat field with DDT at 1.5 pounds per acre.

Armyworm may be present in grass waterways, ditch banks and fence rows. To these areas they migrate from corn. Control measures are toxaphene at 2 pounds per acre or dieldrin 1/2 pound per acre.

Tomato aphids have been found in some fields. Malathion at the rate of 1 quart per 100 gallons of water per acre will give adequate control. This pest could cause severe circumstances as it spreads a disease known as tomato mosaic.

Colorado potato beetles have also been found in tomato fields.
DDT should be used for control.
When applying insecticides, observe all precautions carefully and give special consideration to wind as to velocity and direction.

"Our idea of a good job would be one where we could work eight hours and sleep eight—preferably the same eight!"—

According to Dr. Thomas G. Scott, game specialist in the department of registration and education, the sporting qualities of the San Juan rabbit do not justify the risk of letting it become established in Illinois.

He said sportsmen stand to gain little or nothing and farmers might suffer severe crop losses if it ever becomes established in the state in large numbers.

The slow action and burrowing habits of the San Juan make it a poor substitute for the nimble native cottontail. Its burrowing habits make it a nuisance and its voracious appetite for grain crops, truck crops, forage crops and pasture make it a menace to agriculture.

The San Juan, about twice as large as the native cottontail, has been introduced into Illinois and several other states from the San Juan Islands in Puget Sound off the coast of Washington.

B. H. Schull, director of the state Department of Mines and Minerals, said the Division of Oil and Gas issued 486 drilling permits during June.

Of the total, 428 were oil well permits and 58 no fee permits compared with 340 oil well permits and 88 no fee permits in June 1954.

Gov. William G. Stratton has announced the appointment of Fred R. Falkenstein, of Belvidere, as superintendent of the newly created Division of Industrial Planning and Development in the state Department of Registration and Education.

Falkenstein, 49, has been secretary manager of the Belvidere Chamber of Commerce for the past 10 years with his activities devoted primarily toward industrial promotions.

The new division, set up by the legislature, will assemble information regarding industrial opportunities of the state, encourage new industrial enterprises to locate in Illinois and encourage tourists to visit Illinois.

Amateur camera fans were reminded today that this will be the last month for participants to enter Gov. William G. Stratton's Illinois State Parks Photo contest.

The contest, which opened April 1, will close Aug. 1. Photos taken by amateur camera enthusiasts of any of the 16 Illinois state parks will be accepted.

Full details and entry blanks for the camera competition may be obtained from custodians at any of the parks and from local camera dealers. Information on the contest also may be obtained by writing the State Division of Department Reports, 406 State House, Springfield.

The appointment of Joseph P. Munday, of Chicago, as superintendent of forestry camps for the Illinois Youth Commission has been announced by Gov. William G. Stratton.

Munday, who formerly served as juvenile parole supervisor for the Youth Commission in the Chicago area, will make his headquarters in Springfield.

Facilities operated by the camp program at the present time include the Shawnee Boys camp, located at the University of Illinois agricultural experimental station near Robbs, in Pipe county, and a temporary camp at the Mississippi Palisades State Park, near Savanna.

Approximately 50 youths, committed to the Youth Commission as delinquents, are undergoing rehabilitative training in the two camps, and plans are under consideration to open additional camps.

A special "Know Your Illinois" radio broadcast featuring news of the Illinois State Fair will be released to local radio stations Sunday, July 10. Director of Agriculture Stillman Standor, Fair General Manager Strother Jones, and Assistant General Manager Louis London participate in the 15-minute discussion which will be broadcast on more than 40 stations throughout the state.

In other announcements made last week about the 1955 exposition, Elmer L. Gochanour, of Grandview, Iowa, a 76-year-old grandfather, who won a baby contest held in 1879 on the old state fairgrounds in Ottawa, was named judge of the baby pageant to be held the first day of this year's fair, Aug. 12. The fair's handicraft center also announced that free demonstrations and lessons will be given during the fair in different types of hobby craft.

PMA Arranges Purchase Plan For Milk Tanks

The board of directors of the Pure Milk association approved a purchasing plan for bulk milk tanks today. The announcement was made by Walter E. Winn, president of the association.

The purchase plan which will be offered to any member of the association is intended to make the purchase easier for the farmer and to help to insure a more satisfactory performance of the equipment.

The bulk milk tank is a recent development in the dairy industry around Chicago. The bulk tank replaces the familiar milk cans which are hauled to a milk plant, unloaded and hauled back to the farm.

Eliminates Cans
The bulk tank operation will eliminate the milk cans. Instead milk will be stored in the refrigerated tank on the farm and transferred to a tank truck for transportation to the milk plant.

Several thousand dairy farmers in the Chicago area already have converted their dairy operation from can milk to bulk tanks. The Pure Milk Association directors expect that many more farmers will be converting during the next few years.

A dairy farmer can purchase a tank from any of hundreds of equipment dealers who supply tanks. He may make his own arrangement or if he is a PMA member he may use the purchase plan. This plan is a special kind of arrangement that is set up between the financing agent, the tank manufacturer, the equipment dealer, the milk plant and the farmer.

Pays Out Of Check
It allows the farmer to pay for his tank out of his milk check. The milk plant agrees to pay the farmer at least 15 cents a hundred pounds more for bulk tank milk than for can milk. The farmer pays this 15 cents and at least another five cents to the financing agent to pay off the loan.

Most bulk tank manufacturers have accepted the terms of the PMA plan and will authorize a 10-year warranty on the tank proper and a five-year warranty on the refrigeration unit. These warranties are backed by a standard insurance policy.

Holstein Show Will Be Held At Mooseheart

Mooseheart will be the scene of the 15th annual northern Illinois Black and White show, sponsored by the Illinois State Holstein association. Judging will take place on the banks of the beautiful Moose lake on Saturday, July 16.

Schedule of events: 9 a.m. (DST) Judging of open and junior classes; 12:30 p.m. lunch; 12:45 p.m. address of welcome by Robert Hanke, assistant superintendent of Mooseheart; Boys and girls fitting and showmanship contest; 1:30 p.m., continuation of cattle judging.

Visitors from Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Michigan, New York, Vermont and Missouri will be present at this annual event.

The public is welcome to attend as guests of the Illinois State Holstein Friesian association.

As much as 60 pounds difference in weaning weights of calves is being found between groups of calves sired by different bulls in tests at the Dixon Springs Experiment Station.

How Nuclear Power Plant Will Look

This is how the Chicago area nuclear power plant will look. To be known as Dresden Station, the plant will be located in Grundy county, at the point where the Kankakee and Des Plaines rivers meet to form the Illinois river. It will be owned and operated by Commonwealth Edison Company with the cooperation of Nuclear power group.

According to the preliminary design, the nuclear reactor, the steam turbine and the electric generator will be housed inside a steel sphere about 200 feet in diameter. Auxiliary shops and other facilities are outside the sphere. River water for condensing steam will be drawn in from the river at one point and discharged at another.

It was announced recently that Commonwealth and the Nuclear Power group had filed a proposal for construction of the plant with the Atomic Energy Commission. The plant, of 180,000 kilowatts capacity, will be built entirely with private funds and is scheduled for operation in 1960. General Electric Company, as prime contractor, will build the station for a contract price of 45 million dollars.

Members of the Nuclear Power Group, in addition to Commonwealth, include American Gas and Electric Service Corporation, Bechtel Corporation, Central Illinois Light Company, Illinois Power Company, Kansas City Power and Light Company, Pacific Gas and Electric Company and Union Electric Company of Missouri.
